Mirillo.The new effervescent aperient for the Liver, Blood and Stomach.Invaluable for persons of sedentary habits.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

Minerva Mirillo

Is a mild and pleasant, but exceedingly effective aperient, keeping the blood pure, regulating the liver, clearing the complexion, removing gouty matter from the system, and generally warding off disease. Made from, and containing all the valuable properties of, ripe fruit. Prized by travelers, seafaring men, and residents in hot climates. A sure preventive of diarrhoea, and a delightful invigorator of the constitution. When used simply as an effervescent beverage, it has most salutary results. Valuable for all persons of sedentary habits, removing depression and head affections, and generally bracing up the nervous system.

Lunch for All—Arrivals for the Summer.

(Special Correspondence.)

MAUI, July 8, 1899.—Makawao folk celebrated Independence Day by a picnic on the beautiful grounds of Mr.
James Lindsay, of Haiku, the estate formerly owned by the George E.
Beckwiths. The day was fair despite a few light showers and a large number of young and old people much enjoyed the informality of the occasion under the delightful shade of magnificent mango trees. Judging by dress, the ladies were more patriotic than the men, for they sported red, white and blue from hatband, neck, corsage and belt, while the men exhibited nothing more than a simple rosette or bit of ribbon at the button hole.Large American and Hawaiian flags floated from poles on either side of the residence. The chief event of the occasion was the delicious lunch served in picnic fashion. Though there were many viands of more aristocratic fame still "Boston baked beans" was the favorite of the day's menu. The games and other festivities terminated at about 4 p. m.The races at Spreckels' Park drew a large crowd of people, filling the grand stand to overflowing.The Kahului R. R. Co. ran trains from Paia at 8:30 a. m. and from Wai-luku at 9:15 to Kahului and also after the races.The steamer Claudine arrived in Kahului the middle of Thursday afternoon, the 6th, having the bark Colusa in tow. She had on board a very large list of passengers, summer visitors to Maui. Among them were Mr. and Mrs.
F. W. Damon, who are to spend a vacation at Puuomalei; Harry Waterhouse, Jr., who is a guest at Kalua-nui; Frank Atherton and a party of three others who are to ascend Haleakala but are at present at Kawaepae Resort; Mrs. H. G. Alexander, W. H.
Babbitt and Rev. and Mrs. Babbitt, who are also at Mrs. H. B. Bailey's, Makawao.C. W. Baldwin, of Haiku, took this week's steamer to Hilo for a short visit with his brother.The H. A. Baldwins are at Olinda House for a month's outing.
Weather—Pleasant—Dry.A Deserter Ashore.
A dramatic incident occurred just as the Valencia was leaving last Sunday.
She had cast off and was well out in the stream. Suddenly a soldier, bare to the waist, shot over the rail. Close after him followed his bundle of clothing, thrown by a comrade. It was seen at once that a bold attempt at desertion was being made. The guard pacing the deck at the bow also saw the daring soldier. He knew what his orders were. In a twinkling his Krag-Jorgensen was at his shoulder. The swimmer saw the movement. There was a report and a dash of spray flew up from the point where the deserter's head was a second before. Only the lightning dive of the escaping soldier had saved him from a deserter's death.
The transport did not stop, and the swimmer was safe. Later he was picked up by a boat and brought ashore. He is in Honolulu now, and if caught, will be tried as a deserter.

Triangle Club.

The Triangle Literary Club held an enjoyable meeting last evening. The attendance was small, but all present had a good time. Owing to the absence of T. McCants Stewart the discussion on parliamentary procedure was postponed until next meeting.
The program was as follows:Mandolin solo J. E. Davis Reading J. F. Kennedy
Song, "Break the News to Mother"
..... J. B. Dias
Hypnotism J. McLaughlinThe hypnotist is a member of the hospital corps at Buena Vista. He made some amusing tests with his subject, Mr. Lester. The latter has been under mesmeric influence hundreds of times, and once succeeded in hypnotizing himself. He was awakened from his hypnotic sleep by Mr.
McLaughlin.
